2012 International China Summer Camp

China, one of the world's greatest civilizations, has a history of more than 5000 years. People from around the world have been enthralled and enticed by the mystique of this unique culture. A visit to China is an opportunity to experience the cultural diversity and grandeur of the world's most populous country. China is growing faster than any other country, so isn't it time you take a visit to this great culture and magnificent history?

Since 2005, MandarinRocks has been successfully hosting summer programs every year for primary school, middle school and college students coming from all over the world. The past 2011 summer camp proved to be another consecutive success with more returning students! This year, with our great management, your schedule will be well organized with a perfect balance of courses, sports, activities, cultural visits and trips, allowing you to have a deep insight into Chinese culture, improve Chinese rapidly and at the same time enjoy your summer vacations.

MandarinRocks Summer Camp is an ideal balance between study, leisure and travel.

We eagerly anticipate your visit in 2011 and look forward to bringing you the unique experience for a lifetime.

Major program components

- Language course

The Chinese language course is the most important component of our summer camp. There are 20 lessons every week, with 4 lessons every day, Monday through Friday. Each lesson is 45 minutes in length. The maximum size of each class is limited to 10 (average 3-6) to ensure every student gets full attention from teacher and has ample time for practice. The carefully designed curriculum emphasizes conversation and communication, so that students may take full advantage of their surroundings and apply what they're learning by speaking with friends during the rest of the day. The summer camp faculty is experienced in teaching young people of various ages and implements a wide array of techniques and activities that speak to every age group and learning type.

- Activities

After morning language classes let out for the day, the afternoons are packed with a variety of activities, all designed be both age-appropriate and fun! We divide the summer camp afternoon activity program into four categories: city exploration, cultural workshops, sports and recreation. By participating in so many different types of activities, students never stop having fun!

- Tours

Every weekend students will explore a different city or interesting attraction near Shanghai with our camp counselors. These trips introduce students to the great diversity of Chinese culture and geography. In 2012, the travel destinations include two former capitals in Chinese history, Hangzhou and Suzhou, the famous ancient water town Qibao, the largest and best amusement park in China Songjiang Happy Valley and a unique "Agritainment" tour in Chongming Island.

- Accommodation

Full camp students all live in safe, clean student accommodation. Accommodation is generally arranged based on gender and age. Students of same gender and close in age stay together (double or triple occupancy in one standard dorm room, four in bigger room). There are desk and chairs in the common area (also equipped with TV, broadband internet access and air conditioning). Our camp staff stays with the junior students (7-15) during evenings and weekends throughout the whole program to take care of every personal need or concern that each student may have. Single room or special accommodation could also be arranged for students or families upon request. We organize transportation between accommodation site and school when necessary.

MandarinRocks Summer Camp FAQ

1 What are the nationalities of the participants you enroll in the camp?

The 2012 international summer camp is open to worldwide participants. We had a diversity of nationalities in previous years. Participants mainly came from USA, Canada, UK, Spain, France, Germany, Singapore and Malaysia. Other students came from Russia, Italy, Poland, Holland, Japan, Korea, Thailand, Indonesia, etc. Some of the participants are of Chinese ancestry or Chinese living abroad.

2 What is the average age for summer camp?

We divide age groups into 7-11, 12-15, 16-22. The average age for the summer camp is 9, 14, 20 respectively.

3 What are the session dates for 2012?

Jun 11, 25, Jul 09, 23, Aug 06. Duration: 2, 4, 6 weeks. Special arrangement made upon request. Full camp students should arrive on the Sunday before program starts and depart on the Saturday following the end of program.

4 Where is the summer camp held?

We have two venues in 2012, one to be held on our centrally located school in Jing'an District, Shanghai and the other to be held by the beach in the coastal resort Jingshan Shihua, an hour away from city center.

5 Do you offer accommodation during summer camp? What's it like?

Yes, we offer housing arrangement. Full camp students live in safe, clean dorm room of student accommodation or guest house. Roommates will be generally arranged based on gender, age and personal request. Single room or special accommodation could also be arranged upon request.

6 What kind of food do you serve? Do you have meal plan during summer camp?

Studying and traveling requires the best nutrition. Our choice of food is consistently praised from the past participants. Breakfast and dinner is served in student accommodation or guest house dining hall while lunch and are served mostly in traditional Chinese dishes and sometimes foreign dishes in school or restaurants in the vicinity and sometimes in residence. During weekend excursion trips, food will be served at local restaurants. Many different styles of genuine Chinese cuisines can be tasted. These may include Zhejiang, Jiangsu, Anhui, Sichuan, Hunan, Cantonese cuisines etc.

A Typical Sample Menu

- Breakfast: cereal, bread, sandwich, egg, juice, milk, soymilk, etc
- Lunch: Rice with beef/chicken/pork, spaghetti, dumplings, fried rice, noodle etc
- Dinner: Chinese meals (meat, fish, vegetable, soup etc)

Three meals are provided daily to full camp students. Only lunch are provided to day camp students. Special request like vegetarian, food allergy can be catered to as long as prior notice is given to us.

7 How are students placed into the right class?

The Chinese courses at MandarinRocks summer camp are offered at all levels from total beginners to advanced.

We ask students to grade themselves on 0-9 scale module and provide past learning experience info for our reference. We will further evaluate students on arrival or first day in the form of writing or interview in order to place them into the appropriate class. Besides language level, age is the other consideration.

8 How about teachers and teaching Methodology?

We've carefully selected a faculty among all our teachers with rich experience in teens and adults teaching. All of them are Chinese natives with university degrees, experienced and passionate about teaching their native language. All of them speak English or other languages. Classes are conceived to be sufficiently interesting and entertaining to motivate students to the fullest, but we simultaneously optimize class time by encouraging conversation and discussion in a serious and professional manner. Our aim is for students to enjoy themselves while learning as much as possible in a short period of time. The methodology is centered on a communicative approach, utilizing diverse techniques to cover the fundamentals of language learning: grammar, speaking, listening, vocabulary, pronunciation, writing & intercultural competence. For beginners, the teaching content will be conducted in Pinyin while for more advanced students, Chinese characters is an integral part of the learning content.

9 How many students in a class?

The maximum size of each class is limited to 10 (average 3-6) to ensure every student gets full attention from teacher and has ample time for practice.

10 What is the ratio of counselor to students?

It is around 1 to 8. Counselors chaperone all organized activities and trips

11 What are the activities that you offer?

They include sports activities like martial arts, ping pong, badminton, cultural workshops like calligraphy, Chinese painting, paper cut and other relaxing activities like city tour, movies, acrobatic show, karaoke, barbeque, etc. The activities cater to different age groups.

12 Who can join the program? I don't know any Chinese. Can I still join?

Many of our students are just learning Chinese and traveling to China for the first time. We look for students who are interested and learning and improving the Chinese language and those with an inquisitive thirst for cultural diversity, adventure. Those students who are narrow minded, skeptical about foreign culture, not willing to try new things and less motivated or independent, however, might not be suitable to the program.

13 How much money should students bring on themselves?

We suggest 100USD/week for personal spending or more for shopping souvenirs and gifts.

14 We will go to China by ourselves. Who should I contact once we are in Shanghai?

All pre-arrangement will be made by us. We will arrange airport pick-up based on your flight information. For those who are already in Shanghai, you can contact our office directly.

15 How safe is the program?

Shanghai is a very safe city. Violent crimes are very rare even in the poorest neighborhoods. In our program, students (under 16) are chaperoned by experienced counselors all the time, from having meals, going to classrooms, afternoon activities and weekend trips. The counselors stay in the student accommodation or guest house in the evenings and weekends to take care of every personal need or concern that each student may have. Any private outings are subject to parent's prior written consent and our approval. The specific days, frequency and times are carefully determined by us for each student.

16 How much freedom can students get? Can students go out to explore on their own?

We arrange plenty of outdoor activities and sight seeing for students in our program. Our counselors will chaperone all these activities. Students aged over 16 are considered adults. They can freely explore the city on their own in their free time off the school class, organized activities or trips. We are aware that some younger students are mature than age and do enjoy a certain level of freedom at home and expect to be able to meet with friends and go off-campus in an unsupervised fashion. For this reason we allow our students under 16 a limited number of unescorted trips off-campus during our program. The specific days, frequency and times are determined by us. This is possible if and only if we receive a written consent from students' parents or guardians.

Regardless of age, all camp students are required to be back in their room before 10pm. Students should sleep in their assigned rooms. No overnight guest is allowed.

17 I will accompany my child to join the camp. Is it possible?

Yes, parents can join the camp together with kids. In the morning when kids are taking Chinese lessons, parents can take Chinese course with adult learners. They can eat lunch and join weekday activities with kid(s) too. Family accommodation can be arranged and family camp can be customized.

18 Can relatives/friends visit participants? Can they go out with relatives during camp?

Yes. Friends or relatives are welcome to visit students at the school. They can stay for lunch, or even join the activities or excursions with students with a fee proportionally. With consent from parents or guardians, students can leave the camp with their relatives, but they should notify us and get approved before they leave and notify us when coming back.

19 Is the Internet connection available?

Internet access is everywhere in Shanghai. In our school, there are computers you may use for checking news, emails free of charge (time is limited so that everyone has the chance to use computer). There is free wireless connection in the entire building too. In student accommodation, there is cable or wireless internet. Students who bring their own computers can connect to the Internet conveniently after a simple setup. There are public internet cafés available as well around our school.

20 How and where do I apply for a visa?

No specific visa type is required by Chinese government to study Chinese at a language school or attend summer camp.

As a general practice guideline, students are suggested to apply for L (tourist) visa in your local Chinese embassy or consulate and it's the most convenient.

To avoid misunderstanding, do NOT mention studying Chinese or attend summer camp when you apply for L or F visa. Many visa officers will ask you to apply for student visa on hearing that while JW201 or JW202 form (one of the must documents for student visa application) is only released if you enroll in a Chinese university. The information they give is often misleading but somehow they just keep doing that!

21 How can I book and join your summer camp?

Step 1-Submit online application form

Step 2-Confirm information accuracy by replying to our auto generated message addressed to your email.

Step 3-We will issue an invoice to your email

Step 4-Pay deposit within 10 days upon booking and remainder according to dates outlined in the invoice

-Succeed! We will provide advice and information prior to your departure!

22 When and how do I pay?

You don't have to pay anything when you submit online application form.

A deposit of 320USD/240EUR deductable from the total (NON REFUNDABLE) must be paid within 10 days after you receive invoice from us. This deposit is not an additional cost. The balance must be paid at least 6 weeks before arrival.

Students currently in Shanghai can pay by credit card or cash in person at school. Students from other cities or abroad can only pay by bank transfer. Bank details are contained in the invoice we issue to you.

23 It's passed application deadline, can I still enroll in your program?

Late applicants are accepted on case to case basis. You can still make inquiry to check availability with us.
